

CHAPTER 2

The Leader and Leadership: What the Leader Must Be, Know, and Do

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to regulations and the Uniform Code of Military Justice. So help me God.

Oath of Enlistment

I [full name], having been appointed a [rank] in the United States Army, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office upon which I am about to enter. So help me God.

Oath of office taken by commissioned officers and DA civilians

2-1. Beneath the Army leadership framework shown in Figure 1-1, 30 words spell out your job as a leader: Leaders of character and competence act to achieve excellence by developing a force that can fight and win the nation’s wars and serve the common defense of the United States. There’s a lot in that sentence. This chapter looks at it in detail.

2-2. Army leadership doctrine addresses what makes leaders of character and competence and what makes leadership. Figure 2-1 highlights these values and attributes. Remember from Chapter 1 that character describes what leaders must BE; competence refers to what leaders must KNOW; and action is what leaders must DO. Although this chapter discusses these concepts one at a time, they don’t stand alone; they are closely connected and together make up who you seek to be (a leader of character and competence) and what you need to do (leadership).
